
Orange = SABL-specific (scale gate + Wasserstein penalty)
Grey = unchanged CIoU terms (IoU, aspect-ratio αv, center-distance) $\mu(s) \to 1$ as $s \to 0$: tiny objects use the Wasserstein penalty, which stays informative at near-zero IoU (ordinary IoU losses vanish)
Box loss only – selector loss, objectness, anchor assignment unchanged